Dear Clerk's Office:

My name is Demarcus Coleman, petitioner in the matter of Coleman v. McLemore, et al. (Case No. 2:19-CV-899-LSC-SGC).

I am responding the notice from February 4, 2021. I am writing to alert this court that I do wish to continue with my case.

I found out that I had to submit this notice on a phone call with Katie on February 22, 2021. The written notice went to my old address, and no notice was sent to my new address, despite my filing a change of address notice with the court. Please make sure this court has the above address for me, and that all future notices come to this address so I do not miss notices going forward.

I am also still waiting to be appointed an attorney for my case. I received a notice on October 14, 2020, that I would be appointed an attorney, and that the selected attorney had 14 days to either enter a notice of representation on my behalf, or decline. I never received any other updates related to this attorney appointment. Please let me know when I can expect my appointment.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Demarcus Coleman
